WINE STORY:

Tasting Notes: Love the aromas of tart red fruit and spice. Silky, fresh and spicy with rose petals, earth and spice. Wow. If tasted blind, I could see mistaking this for a Pinot but, when sipped after Briceland Pinots, this shows more sweet flowers and earth. Lovely stuff. (91 points) Alcohol: 13.3% "The wines are ridiculously inexpensive considering the quality...You should try these wines. It is time we celebrate the honest, special wines from small wineries that never receive the press that the hi-profile producers garner." -Rusty Gaffney, Prince of Pinot "Wines off the Beaten Track".
