WINE STORY:

all prairie grass and sunflowers frame endless vistas across the meandering Flint Hills of eastern Kansas where Aaron Michaelis spent a childhood filled with outdoor adventures. His fond memories of being together with family and friends to celebrate the love of life has transformed into Flint Knoll where finely crafted wines are honed from the finest vineyards in Napa and Sonoma. These are wines to be shared at special moments in time. Journey with Aaron, and noted winemaker Andy Jones, as they create a portfolio of small production wines with distinctive character. Flint Knoll is a boutique, small production wine brand that crafts wines which each highlight the farming, vineyards and vintage. ~ Aaron Michaelis, Flint Knoll Proprietor & Vintner
