WINE STORY:

Great wine speaks profoundly, a universal language that transcends any one culture. Hailing from northern Europe, the Fullerton family speaks many languages, and delights in sharing the language of wine with others. Fullerton Wines sources and cares for vineyards, both old and new, that display authenticity and character—the vineyards speak of their specific place. In the winery, Alex Fullerton tends the winemaking process with an artistic and respectful hand, resulting in elegant and distinctive Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays. Lauded from coast to coast, Fullerton Wines bottles the essence of the Willamette Valley. Join the journey. Hailing from Denmark and Sweden, the Fullerton family lives and breathes a life of hospitality grounded in sharing food and wine with integrity, along with a dash of joy and laughter. Eric's long time passion for wine spread to his son Alex, and as a result the family opened their own wine business. Scouring the Willamette Valley, Alex selects blocks from some of the best vineyards in the region, and farms them cooperatively with the vineyard owners. Using his experience gained from vintages at cornerstone Willamette producers, he crafts distinctive and age-worthy Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Alex aims to make a small proportion of Single Vineyard Designate wines from the very best barrels, and a blend of all the vineyards under the Five FACES label. The Five FACES represents the 5 members of the Fullerton Family – Filip, Alex, Caroline, Eric and Susanne. 20% new French oak and 15% whole cluster inclusion.
