WINE STORY:

Tart cherry and cranberry compliment the savory spice and floral notes of this Pinot Noir from the Petaluma Gap, a pending sub-AVA of the Sonoma Coast AVA. Instantly a crowd pleaser, but with aromatic depths that will intrigue even the most discerning of wine lovers. The Seppa vineyard exemplifies some of the best qualities that the Sonoma Coast AVA has to offer. Pure 115 clone, aged in 1/3 new, 1/3 used, and 1/3 neutral French Oak. 2016 bottles produced.
